Established in 2004, the BC Major Midget League provides 15, 16 and 17-year-old players elite calibre hockey in order to develop high-level athletes for future participation in the junior hockey ranks. The league consists of 11 teams scattered throughout the province of British Columbia reaching as far north as Prince George and east towards the Kootenays. The Giants will play a 40-game regular season schedule (20 home games and 20 road games) with the top six teams from the regular season advancing to the playoffs. The winner of the BC Major Midget League will advance to play the Alberta Midget AAA winner for the right to compete in the TELUS Cup National Midget Championship.

The Northwest Giants will be playing their home games at the North Shore Winter Club and Brennan Park, Squamish for 2016–17 season.
